Also on Sunday, July 10, the Fountain Theatre will livestream the final performance of Roe by Lisa Loomer (see our review here) beginning at 8 p.m. PT/11 p.m. ET. The event, which the theater calls “part outdoor rally, part call to action, part guerrilla theater,” tells the story of “Norma McCorvey, known as “Jane Roe” and Sarah Weddington, the lawyer who argued the case—behind Roe v. Wade, the landmark 1973 Supreme Court case that gave women the right to safe, legal abortions.” It’s just ending a 3-week, sold-out run on the Fountain’s outdoor stage, where it was presented as a “hyper-staged” reading. Sunday’s livestream will available free of charge as a public service to audiences around the country. To receive the link, go to www.fountaintheatre.com.
