Moving Arts Theatre proudly presents The World Premiere of What Price Freedom by Tony Blake

One Chance. Two Voices. A Nation in the Balance.

Timed at this crucial juncture of history, What Price Freedom stars Rob Nagle and Brandon Bales. It's 1776, the Declaration of Independence has just been signed. With war looming, John Adams and Benjamin Franklin attempt a covert peace negotiation with Britain, only to find their greatest obstacle is not the Crown, but each other. The fate of the new nation hangs on whose version of freedom will triumph in this new play asking us what independence means, and what are the costs.

What Price Freedom's creative team includes Set & Lighting Design by Justin Huen, Sound Design by Warren Davis, Costume Design by Mylette Nora, and Props Design by Dana Schwartz.
